

Instructions

Step 1: Preparation for the seminar

Before participating in a seminar, complete a new form each time "Preparation for seminars: preparation of the situation to be presented" available in the space.

This form will be used to prepare the content of the seminar.

If you lack inspiration, you can consult the document "Possible questions to inspire you" available in the space.

Step 2: Conducting the seminar

In turn, you present to the group the situation you worked on in your form. Then you discuss this situation with the group.

In conclusion, in turn, participants share the main learning from the seminar.

Step 3: Post-seminar reflection

Following the seminar, we suggest that you answer the following question: How does the seminar allow you to be better equipped to benefit from your intercultural experience.