

Instructions for the responding teacher

To prepare seminars, you must form a group of 3 to 8 participants composed of Elisse trainees and local students.

- Establish 3 dates to carry out the seminars.
- Inform the students of these dates Invite the students to complete the document "preparation for the seminar". Students can consult the "possible questions" document to guide their preparation.
- Facilitate the 3 meetings (It is suggested to have 2 or 3 hours)

Proposed Agenda

- Round table " how's it going?"
- Presentation of the objectives and the course of the seminar
- Taking turns presenting and discussing intercultural challenges
- Ask students: "If this situation were to arise again, what would you do differently?"
- Conclude by inviting students to name one learning experience from the seminar.

Remind students to drop the post-seminar reflection in the outbox.
