

Preparation form

Mode: Anonyme

Identify a cross-cultural challenge encountered in your daily life or in your internship. You can draw inspiration from the ELISSE tools or simply from a real-life situation.

Brief description of the situation

What were your reactions?

What bothers you in this situation?

In your opinion, what is the cultural aspect of this situation?

What do you need to know in order to better understand?